QUESTION ONE

Afia Hildegard appreciated the value of good education. Having been catapulted into early motherhood at the tender age of 16, she had her education only up to Standard 7. She had to do menial jobs in order to keep body and soul together and also for the upkeep of her daughter Naa Korkoi Yirenkyiwaa. By dint of hard work, courage and selflessness she saved to put Naa Korkoi through primary and then secondary school.

It had always been her dream that her daughter Naa Korkoi would be a Medical Doctor. She was always excited whenever she met beautiful young lady Doctors at the Swatson Teaching Hospital. To her dismay and disappointment Naa Korkoi Yirenkyiwaa opted to read Law when the time came for her to begin her tertiary education.

Afia Hildegard vehemently protested against this choice. To her the Law profession was full of "liars" or people who told half truths as she candidly put it. She prophesied that if Naa Korkoi went ahead with this choice she would end up
